Regional Event

Vita Global Week South America

April 4th to April 7th

The purpose of the Vita Global Week in South America (hosted by UNCuyo) is to provide different meeting spaces, events, and discussions targeted at

- Continued academic cooperation and training related to the implementation of the 6 Vita Global modules
- Organizing local economic roundtables/dialogue with industry on the project themes and content
- Presenting the Vita Global White paper on modularization and internationalization of teaching and learning and debating its possible significance with teaching staff
- Offering a space for IRO staff from the partner universities to further network and discuss spin-off collaborations

The week will take place in Mendoza and Buenos Aires. Numerous activities with different target audiences are planned. Vita Global partners are invited to sign up for the different activities as they see fit and schedule parallel meetings.
